9.10.2001 :

Shri S.Ahuja for the petitioner.

Shri Deep Kesharwani for the State.

The order impugned before this Court was issued by the SDO on 20.7.2001 (Annexure P-4). The matter is related to possession of the land. The impugned order is appellable before the Commissioner. According to Shri Ahuja the petitioner being a very poor person is unable to go through all the procedural wrangles of civil laws and therefore, he has approached this Court so that he might get some immediate relief. Since the appeal provisions are provided in the matter, I am of the view that the writ petitioner must take his grievance before the appellate authority against the order passed by the learned SDO.

In the result,after hearing counsel for the parties and on perusal of the impugned order this petition is disposed of with a direction that the writ petitioner should approach the appellate authority,the Commissioner in the present case. Let it be done within 15 days from today. Delay,if any,shall stand condoned. The appellate authority shall pass necessary interim or final order. However,till
